DAGONET AND PICKNICKER

SONS OF TREMONT AND MR. PICKWICK WIN IN THE MUD.

Mr. Munter's Colt Lands the Second Diviste of the Non and Sound Stakes as Cleverty as He Did the First-Mr. Lectilard's Pro test-Picknicker Wins the Jerome Stake in a Gallop-Jimmy Rows Sells Out-Mow the Other Races Were Wen and Loot,

The lowering sky and chilling rain kept a mapority of the racegoing public at home yesterday yet it was surprising, under the circumstances, that so many persons turned out to see the second division of the Sea and Sound Stakes and the Jerome Stakes decided. The track was fetlock deep in mud.

The favorite. Dagonet, had a hollow victory in the Sea and Sound Stakes, but Picknicker made short work of his opponents in the Je-rome, the favorite, Bermuda, finishing abso-lutely last. Dagonet's weight, according to the programme, was 111 pounds. Mr. Pierre Lorillard thought that this was wrong and en-Lorillard thought that this was wrong and en-tered a protest to the Board of Stewards, de-claring that Mr. Hunter's black colt should carry 125 pounds, inasmuch as he had won the first divison of the Sea and Sound Stakes at Sheeps-head Bay, and was penalized seven pounds therefor. Mr. Lorillard was right in one way; but the conditions of the Sea and Sound Stakes read. "the winner of the Sea and Sound Stakes at the Coney Island Jockey Club meeting to carry seven pounds more than he carried in that race, provided the weight to be carried shall not exceed 130 pounds." Dagonet, forturnlely for Mr. Hunter, got into the first division with all the allowances, maiden and otherwise, and had to put up 104 pounds. By the conditions he had to carry seven pounds more. or 111 pounds, in yesterday's prize, which ande the meens absolute certainty for him. The Board of Stewards met and decided that Dagonot was earrying his proper weight. homestretch was reached. Then Hamilton let Imponet run a bit, and the black colt won hamis down. Actor, ridden hard by Taral, beat Candelabra a narrow margin for second money. Mr. Keone sent Alonzo to the post in addition to Candelabra, and the son of Harry O'Fallon ran a creditable race, considering the fact that he had 125 pounds up. As Dagonet has won two of the races for the Sea and O'Fallon ran a creditable race, considering the fact that he had 125 pounds up. As Dagonet has won two of the races for the Sea and Sound Stakes, which is a quadruple evant. Mr. Huntar gets $1,000 extra. In case Dagonet should win one of the races next year as a three-year-old, he will receive $3,000, and should the black son of Tremont land all four. Mr. Huntar will be paid $5,000 extra.

Although Hormuda cannot run in the mud, the public mads him favorite for the Jerome stakes. Picknicker, who opened second choice, steadily receding in the betting until 4 to 1 could be had. The mud put Rey del Rey out of it, too, and after Kildeer had made the running for a mile and a furlong she was done, leaving Picknicker and the rank outsider. Hoodlum, to light it out. Picknicker, revoiling in the sloppy track, drew away in the homestretch, and won in a big gallop. Hoodlum beat Rey del Rey four lengths for second money. Bermuda was last, just where he should have finished mecording to his previous performances on a muddy track. Mr. L. O. Appleby, who owns. Picknicker, did not have a penny on his colt. and even hedged a portion of the stake. Jack McDonald thought the big son of Mr. Pickwick would win and backed him to win $2,500. The stake is a valuable one and is one of the old Jerome Park fixed events.

Leonawell was favorite for the opening event mnd won in a big gailop, the second choice. Belwood, securing the place, while Lillian, at long odds, ran third.

Peter, Masterlode, Demuth, and Abi carried considerable money for the mile and a furlong handleap, Masterlode closing favorite. Lambity took Eshner's big colt out in the lead at ling fall, and, making all the running, won by a length from Peter, the rank outsider, Virgle, finishing third.

Zorling was favorite for the scramble for two-year-olds, but the long shot Monepolist, piloted by Major Covington, beat the well-played Kilkenny casily. The Secromancy cold was a close third. The favorite was never brominent, being too sore to extend herself.

victory for the 3 to 1 chance, Minnie Cee, 110, Thorpe up, Frank Kinney, at 6 to 1, being second, two lengths in front of Empress Frederick, while the favorite, Fauvette, was next to last. Time, 1104%.

The mile dash had seven starters, and Fillide, at 7 to 5, was the favorite, but she ran unplaced, the Buchanan filly Heien N., 64, piloted by Perkins, at 3 to 1 in the betting, winning under a pull by three lengths from Lake Breeze, who was five lengths in front of Irish Chief. Time, 1:44.

Carus, 105, with Thorpe up, was an odds on favorite for the mile and a quarter selling purse, and he won on the post by a head, after a desperate finish with Many C. Carter B. was third, beaten two lengths. Time, 2:15.

Anna, 105, ridden by Perkinson, an even money favorite, played with the other three starters in the nine furiong handican, winning in a gallop by a length and a half. Hydy finished second, a head in front of Laura Doxey, but later he was disqualified for a foul and the place given to the latter. Business was awarded third money. Time, 2 minutes.

The last half of the five-furiong dash, with seven starters, was virtually a walkover for the even money favorite. Rally III., R. Williams up, he winning by two lengths from Perblaise, who beat Comether the same distance for second place. Time, 1:04.

VANIA STAKE AT LEXINGTON. Bred by A. A. Bonner, who Saw Him Win-Miss Altee's Good Showing-Br. Sparks Lands the Bine Grass Stakes Belmarch to Most Allerion Justeed of Nancy Manks

LEXINGTON. Ky.. Oct. 13.—There were no divided heats at the Trotting Horse Breeders' meeting to-day, but two of the three races were productive of first-class sport, especially the Transylvania Stake for 2:20 trotters. About 5,000 people attended, though with the delightful weather and promising card the crowd should have been larger. Excepting visitors from a distance, much of the local patronage holds off for Thursday, when the special for Nancy Hanks and Allerton had been arranged.

This great attraction has had to be varied materially, for the pride of Kentucky is still out of condition, and Doble decided to-day that she would not be fit to start. He and "Independence" Williams had a long conference in the judges' stand this afternoon, the result of which was announced before the crowd dis-persed. While Nancy Hanks will not meet Allerton, the Iowa champion will have a chance to show his quality in a match arranged be-tween him and Delmarch, the sensational bay

They will trot for the purse on Thursday, and if Delmarch wins he is to give Allerton another chance, at Independence during the last week of this month, the amount at stake to be $5,000. Allerton holds the stallion record, but Delmarch has won a heat in 2:12, a faster race record than the son of Jay Bird has, and this equals the performance of Nancy Hanks when she defeated Allerton on the kite track. Be-record than the son of Jay Bird has, and this equals the performance of Nancy Hanks when she defeated Allerton on the kite track. Besides, Delmarch trotted against time in 2:11% last week at Terre Haute; so that he is sure to be a harder nut to crack than Nelson was. It is not likely that the contest between the two stallions will draw as well as if Nancy Hanks could fill her engagement, but it should be one of the fastest races ever trotted.

The Blue Grass Stake came first to-day and was a gift to Dr. Sparks, who sold at any odds over the other four-year-olds. The big brown colt stepped off an easy mile in 2:23%, then went the second heat in 2:18%, with a break near the quarter, and ended up with one in 2:17%, a slight drop in his record. Presto was creditably close each time, and Nellie Mason managed to save her distance.

Then the eight speedy campagners that declared to start for the 2:20 stake came out, with Charleston still a hot favorite. Some pools footed up $1.000, and in these Charleston brought $650. Cheyenne $130, and the others went much cheaper. Miss Alice drew inside place, but the talent plunged on Charleston from the heat at 2 to 5 against. The first quarter was moderate, and Pickpania took the lead. Miss Alice dropping to third. Charleston made such a break on the backstretch that McHenry laid him up. Coming home Miss Alice was in a pocket next the rall, but got through when Pickpania lost her stride and was leading from the distance. Then Cheyenne made a rapid burst outside and had a nose the best of it in 2:18%, Still it was 5 to 3 on Charleston, and he managed to get up to Cheyenne's wheel on the homestratoh in the second heat, but went to pieces again, and the bilind horse finished strong in 2:15%. Abbie V. closed quite a gap even at tels clip, but too late to get better than second, while Miss Alice had jumped off her stride in the second quarter and was slowed up atter that. Pools were 5 to 4 on Cheyenne before the third heat, as Charleston was clearly out of the hunt, as he suffering f

The 2:32 class was quickly ended by Olite Wilkes, a young mare who raised a colt this season, and she reduced her record to 2:23% in the third heat. Corinne looked dangerous in this mile till she made a break near the in this must the same made a set of 2:30 class for two-year-olds make up the card.

Driver Behind Him. PHILADELPHIA. Oct. 13 .- Owing to the cold wind and threatening rain the attendance today at Point Breeze was below the average. The track was in firs-trate condition, the fields arge, and, as usual at the end of the season, the heats were well contested, every horse being out for his winter oats.

In the 2:40 class the field was favorite at In the 2:40 class the field was favorite at $25. Willis A. and Frank Brown selling at $10 each. On a warmer day and with less wind the winner could have credited Alcantara with a new 2:30 representative. Another young Alcantars. H. J. Rockwell, was made favorite in the 2:30 pace, but the brown gelding. Brown Frank, stepped off three heats, all in 2:23%. His driver, who gave the name of Johnson, was disguised with a huge pair of false whiskers and green goggles. Brown Frank won with such ridiculous ease, coming home in a big jog each heat, that, coupled with the driver's disguise, the race looked very fishy. Johnson, of course, knew nothing, but enough was discovered to induce F. M. Dodge of Pittsfield, owner of the favorite, H. J. Rockwell, to enter a protest. The real name of Brown Frank is not yet certain, but it is alleged that he made a record close to 2:20 early in the summer at Jackson, Mich. This fellow has come through the Pennsylvanian circuits, plundering right and left. His first money is held, pending identification, but the bookmakers suffered, and it is said that contary to usage, the parties succeeded in getting their pool tickets cashed directly after the announcement of the last heat.

Cypress and Charlie C. were backed against the field in the 2:20 trot. Cypress has come on since last week. His mile to-day in 2:22 is, conditions considered, equal to his best record. Bummaries:

THE CRIPPLED ALPHAS WIN In the Second Night's Play of the America

Three games were rolled in the American national bowling tournament at Germania Assembly Room allers last evening. Something seemed to affect the spectators, as they showed no desire to let loose their wild screeches. In fact, a more silent crowd never attended a bowling tournament. The scores: FIRST GAME.

CENTLEMEN: Parsuant to the resolution adopted by your Board on Monday, Oct. 5, 1891, the Executive Committee of this company, which was directed by said resolution to investigate the charges that have appeared in the public press concerning the recent games of baseball played in the city of Boston between the New York ball team and the Boston team, respectfully re ports as follows:

The committee has made a most thorough and careful investigation of the charges, as far as lies in its power so to do, and in the prosecution of the investigation has examined the following named persons: James O'Rourke, James Mutrie, A. H. Bell, William Ewing, Papila Richardson, action Clarke, P. D. Robbler, London.

Daniel Richardson, Arthur Clarke, R. D. Buckley, John Ewing, Amos Rusie, and Roger Connur.

All of those persons attended at the office of the counsel of the company, Messrs. Redding & Kiddle, on Thursday, Oct. 8, at 11 o'clock A. M., having been previously requested so to do in writing by the committee. Messrs. J. W. Spalding and E. B. Talcott of the committee conducted the examination, with the as-aistance of Mr. Aifred W. Kiddle, who was asked by the committee to be present, and who took part in the ex-amination with the consent of the persons named. Mr. John B. Day, the other member of the persons named. Mr. John B. Day, the other member of the committee, did not attend, he having notified Mr. Spalding by telegraph on the day previous to the meeting that he was called out of town on business and desired the committee to excuss him. Each of the persons named were interrogated separately, and willingly answered.

The evidence taken in our investigation discloses, referring to the condition of the players immediately prior to and during the series with the Boston team in question, use of the sames played on the 21st of September, in the city of New York with the New York team and the Philadelphia team. John Rew York team spraised his anile, and was so disabled that he could not pitch in any game from that time up to the game he offered to pitch, though his ankle was still lame. On account of this injury to Ewing he was not taken to Boston.

That at his request Amos Rusie, pitcher, was excused from playing in the Boston games by Mr. Mutrie after consultation with Mr. Day, during the progress of one of the games played on the 28th of September at the city was Brooklyn. Referring to the extra or postponed games on Sept. It and 30 your committee reports that notwithstanding the then crippied condition of the team, they were arranged for by M. Murrie in the city of Boston on Monday, Sept. 28, he having been first assured that the requisite number (six) of the other clube had given their consent, for the reason, as stated by him, that, in his opinion, it would increase the receipts of the company. Your committee further reports that all the players examined assert that they played with as much desire and with every effort to win the games from the Bostons as any other games that they over played.

I have carefully read the foregoing report and the testimony appended thereto, and I fully concer in the conclusions stated in said report.

John S. Day.

Then came the report of the Board of Directions and the report.

Then came the report of the Board of Directors on the evidence as submitted to them:
Whereas At the last meeting of this Board, held on Monday, Oct. 5, 1891, the Executive Committee of the company was directed to make a thorough investigation of the charges concerning the recent games played between New York and Boston; and.
Whereas, The Executive Committee has presented its report to this Board, with the evidence taken by said committee appended, and and report and evidence having been carefully examined, and all the facts having been fully considered by this Board, it is Reoleval, That this Board accept the report, and it is its unannimous opinion that there was no deliberate intention on the part of the management of the New York ball team to in any wise weaken said team for the purpose of losing the games with the Boston tsam, and that the New York team was most unfortunately handicapped immediately prior to and during the games of the active management of the team to have a rranged the two extra games in Boston in view of the disability of so many of the reliable players, and in the absence of Ruise and Connor, and that any apparent indifference or carelessness on the part of the players was due entirely to the unfortunate circumstance above referred to and not to any bad faith or intentional desire that Boston should win.

Reoleval, We regret that the full credit should be withheld from the Boston team for winning the pennant which we believe was due to their brilliant work during the last eighteen games of the season, unequalled in different play by the New York team are without any foundation whatever, and were made with injudicious haste, and we believe absolutely in the honesty and integrity of the players of the New York team are without any foundation whatever, and were made with injudicious haste, and we believe absolutely in the honesty and integrity of the players of the New York team were thought and integrity of the players of the New York team who took part in the last series of games at Bosto Then came the report of the Board of Directors on the evidence as submitted to them:

"I wish to say," said J. W. Spalding, at the conclusion of the meeting, "that the statements to the effect that I have interfered in the management of the club are without foundation. At no time have I advised the release or engagement of any player, and in the case of Keefe I knew nothing of his release until the announcement was made in the newspapers."

Mr. Spalding thereupon submitted the following interesting document:

To the Public: Whereas some newspapers have for lowing interesting document:

To the Public: Whereas, some newspapers have for some time past been instanting that Mr. J.W. Spaiding has been interfering with the management of the New York Baseball Club, and has been interfering with my pretogratives in connection with the club, I wish to say he will be a few or the following that since the team took the few of the public has been an early with the meanagement whatever, nor has be in any way interfered with me in reference to the club or its affairs. Bosrox, Oct. 13.—The big cricket game here was brought to an unexpected conclusion to-day by the Englishmen winning by 243 runs. The visitors did some very fine batting in the morning, and, notwithstanding the wintry aspect of the day, there was quite a respectable attendance to witness the conclusion the match.

The weather was cold, and a strong wind The weather was cold, and a strong wind made it feel even woses than it was. K. J. Key played a very patient innings for 31. and showed altogether a different style from Woods, Hewett, and Lord Hawke, who hit hard and scored rapidly. C. Wreford-Brown also showed good form, and his 27 not out was really the best contribution of the day. When the home team wont in to bat the light was very bad and the men played listlessly, knowing that were totally unable to present knowing they were totally unable to prevent defeat. Still, the wonderful analysis of S. M. J. Woods was a great performance, and the batsmen could not do anything with his lightbatsmen could not do anything with his light-ning-like delivery. The record of 7 wickets for 7 runs is likely to stand as a record for an international match on the Longwood ground. On account of the poor weather it was de-cided after the match to cancel the All Massa-chusetts games, and Lord Hawke's team will leave for the West at 4 o'clock to-morrow af-ternoon. The score:

The new auxiliary steamship Zaria. built in England for Count Stroganoff. has had a trial trip with highly satisfactory results. She was designed by W. C. Storey, and built by Ramage & Ferguson of Leith. Her dimensions are: Length between perpendiculars. 204 feet; beam, 33 feet; depth. 16 foet; extreme draught, 17 feet. She is composite built, all her beams being of steel, and the whole of the bottom is fully plated. All the woodwork is of teak, and the planking is 5% inches in thickness. She is rigged as a three-masted schooner with yards on the foremast, and carries an unusually large spread of canvas.

The engines are of the triple expansion type of 150 nominal horse power, though the indicated horse power has reached field, which institles the belief that she will reach 1,000. There are two steel boilers working up to a prossure of 150 pounds.

The Zaria made a mean speed of 12 2-3 nautical miles per hour with a prassure of 150 pounds, 92 revolutions per minute, and 28 inches of vacuum.

Her accommodations are admirably arranged and the decorations are very claborate. She can carry a crew of sixty. There are no fewer than 120 incandescent lights in addition to the search and masthead lights. She is armed with three Hotchkiss quick-firing guns, and will make her first vovage to the West Indees next month.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the mass bere of the Star Athletic Club and Company A. SPORTS AT THE COLLEGES. Cames to be Played by the Princeton Fresh

PRINCETON, Oct. 13.-A meeting of the freshman class football team was held last night. Beveral matters of interest were discussed, and it was decided that the class should have two teams on the field and that thirty men should go into training at once. A schedule of games previously arranged by Manager E. E. Scovill previously arranged by Manager E. E. Scovill was announced as ratified by the faculty. The schedule is considered the best that has been arranged in many years. The series will conclude with a game on the day before the Princeton-Itale championship with Columbia in New York. The complete list is:

Princeton freshmen to Princeton Institute, Eastern Park, Oct. 28: Lehigh freshmen vs. Princeton freshmen vs. Princeton, Nov. 7; Wesleyan freshmen vs. Princeton freshmen, at Middletown, Nov. 14; Lawrenceville vs. freshmen, at Lawrenceville, Nov. 21: Columbia freshmen vs. Princeton freshmen, at New York, Nov. 27. The Wesleyan game may not be played, as the Wesleyan freshmen are doubtful whether they can play on the date arranged.

The 'varsity team scored four touch downs.

be played, as the Wesleyan Treshmen are doubtful whether they can play on the date arranged.

The varsity team scored four touch downs against the scrubs to-day. Several times the latter forced the varsity near their goal line, but were unable to score. The touch downs were made by Poe, King, Bergen, and Wood. Moffat, '86, Billy Spicer, and Jesse Riggs coached the players. Spicer, who played on last year's team, became so enthusiastic that he threw himself into the game, and caused considerable laughter. Once, when the scrub backs fumbled the ball he fell on it, and at another time grabbed it up and punted for forty yards. Thomas, last year's left guard, has announced that he will not play this year. He will devote his time to studying electricity and coaching the players. Johnny Poe was carried off the field again to-day. In a scrimmage a few minutes after the game began he got his ankle, which was hurt a few weeks ago, sprained. Harrold, the right tackle, is also laid off with a sore leg, and will not play in to-morrow's game. Shep Homan's ankle was so sore to-day after yesterday's game that he dare not play. The second game of the season at Princeton will be played to-morrow against Lehigh.

WEST POINT, Oct. 13.-Williams, Yale, '01, has been coaching the academy team for two weeks and is pleased with the team work. It weeks and is pleased with the team work. It was through the great interest displayed by the officers of the post that Williams's services were secured. Under such a coacher there is no reason why the academy team should not wipe out the victory of the naval cadets of last year by a greater score than 24 to 0.

The superintendent. Col. Wilson, owing to the loss of the gymnasium this year, has allowed football to go on, some outside sport being needed for exercise.

In last Saturday's game with Sieglar's school a marked development in interfering was shown. It is hoped that games can be arranged with Butgers, Stephens, and Fordham for the latter part of this month and the first of next. The game of the season will, however, be when Capt. Michel lines up his military forces against the navy on Nov. 28. This game will be as important throughout the country as the Yale-Princeton game, and the prospects of the teams are already being discussed.

Where Will They Play the Big Camel NEW HAVEN. Oct. 13.-Princeton's football team management has made a proposition to Manager W. A. Wright. '92 of the Yals team, It is to the effect that the annual game on Thanksgiving Day between the teams be Thanksgiving Day between the teams be played at the Polo grounds. Manager Wright left for New York at noon to-day to meet the Princeton managers and the owners of the grounds, with a view of making definite arrangements. Yale's preference is Eastern Park in Brooklyn, where last year's game was played.

On Saturday week 122 teams contested in Rug-by football matches in Yorkshire. As each team consists of fifteen players, and as one referee and two "touch judges" are required in each match, it follows that 2.150 "kickers" were on the field in one county in England on one Sat-urday afternoon. Each of these matches was natronized by at least 5,000 spectators. At the Bradford vs. Leeds encounter £165 were taken in 6 and 12 cents gate money. There facts speak volumes for the popularity of Rugby football in England, and especially so in the county of "Broad Acres."
